March 2 FEATHERS AND FEEDERS
See real nests, check out feathers, beaks and feet, discover how birds fly, identify native birds, and discover what foods they eat. Make a feeder and nest and get the latest bird info from the Audubon Society and Cornell Lab of Ornithology.

March 9 GONE BATTY
Discover the world of the bat. Experience their sonic skills and locate food, see real bat skeletons, real preserved bats, and learn why bats are so important to humans. Make your own bat to take home.

March 16 THE ART IN SCIENCE
Learn what art has to do with science. Make art from math with tessellations, use gravity to paint pictures, mix colors, and make bubble art.

March 23 Easter, Museum Closed

March 30 BONE UP ON BONES
Learn what's so fascinating about our internal framework. Handle bone replicas, measure real bones, see the bones of some animals, and make a skeleton to take home. Have a tasty calcium rich snack to take home.
